1. Pre-Employment Collection Statement

This organisation respects your privacy. This statement explains how we collect, use and disclose information during the pre-employment recruitment and selection process.

(a) What is personal information?

Personal information is any information or an opinion (whether true or not) about you. It may range from the sensitive (e.g. medical history or condition) to the everyday (e.g. address and telephone number). It includes the opinions of others about your work performance (whether true or not), your work experience and qualifications, test results and other information obtained by us in connection with your possible employment. Personal information includes sensitive information which can, in most cases, only be disclosed with your consent.

(b) Who will be collecting your personal information?

This organisation or a nominated contractor involved in the recruitment process will collect your personal information for the organisation's own use in connection with your potential employment.

(c) How your information will be collected

Personal information will be collected about you when we receive:

- Your resume, completed application cover sheet or application form and any other information in connection with your application
- Information in the course of an interview
- References or results of enquiries that we might make of your former employers, work colleagues, professional associations or registration bodies
- Results of competency tests or medical examination
- Information you disclose about any workplace injury or accident, insurance investigation, litigation, disciplinary matter, criminal matter, inquest or inquiry in which you are involved
- Any additional documentation you provide about yourself.

(d) How will your information be used?

Your personal and sensitive information may be used in connection with:

- Your possible or actual employment
- Any test or assessment that you might be required to undergo

The Cassidy Crew ABN 22 660 761 820
